A note to potential riders...

For those who may be riding with us for the 1st time; the Festival Ride is held in conjunction with the Missouri River Festival of the Arts and is sponsored by the Friends of Historic Boonville, a group dedicated to the arts and the preservation of our historic structures.
Your ride will begin (and end) at the historic Thespian Hall in Downtown Boonville. From there, you will head out on the 42 mile "Wooldridge Route" (route marked). Once you arrive in Prairie Home (2nd Rest Stop) you will roll on to Wooldridge... or take the optional "Loop to Lupus" (Lupus is a small community right on the Missouri River). The "Loop" adds 10 very challenging (hilly) miles to the original 42-mile route for a total of 52 miles. All miles are some of the more scenic in Missouri with decent road surfaces and relatively little traffic.
As always, it is the people who make it a great ride! So please join us and bring your friends! The ride is well supported with rest stops and support vehicles. When you finish, we will again be serving FREE ICE CREAM on the front steps of Thespian Hall.

Looking Forward to seeing you in Boonville!
